About The Event

Due to the ever-changing needs of the corporate world, as well as the ongoing homogenisation of Australian legal practices, Commercial Litigation is an area which changes rapidly – for this reason it is imperative to remain on top of the latest changes in legislation. ChillIQ's Commercial Litigation Conference is an event whose main objective is to educate and inform delegates of recent points of interest within the current Commercial Litigation environment.

This year's conference will offer an in-depth analysis on current topics of interest within the practice of Commercial Litigation such as: International Arbitration, Class Actions, Restitutions, Contract Disputes and Expert Evidence. With the expert knowledge from individuals at the forefront of Commercial Litigation, this conference acts as an opportunity to expand the required skill-set of attendees involved in all levels of Commercial Litigation.

Who Should Attend

The event has been particularly researched and produced to benefit the following job titles:

- Commercial Litigation Specialists
- Academics
- Barristers
- Junior Solicitors
- Commercial Litigation Mediators
- All those interested in the area of Commercial Litigation

What You Will Learn

- The following issues will be discussed in the one-day forum:
- Litigating Contract Disputes
- The increased powers of the Regulators
- Developments in recent Class Actions and Restitution Cases
- Personal Properties Securities Reform – Possible implications
- Forensic Evidence
- Negotiation
